

FRANKFORT.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 7, 1847.

Several of the Kentucky papers copy the Legislative proceedings from the Daily Commonwealth, without giving us credit.

The election to fill the vacancy in the representation of Logan county in the House of Representatives, occasioned by the resignation of Col. J. W. IRVING, has resulted in the election of DEURY W. POOR, Esq.

GREEN ADAMS, Esq., of Knox, was nominated by the Whig convention held at Manchester last week, as a candidate for Congress in the 6th district. The proceedings of the meeting evince great harmony and concord, and we trust our friends will forget old divisions, and unite cordially in support of the nominee.

Our thanks are due to the Hon. JAMES T. MORRIS, for a copy of the report of the Secretary of the Treasury, and accompanying documents.

At the special election for Senator in Delaware county Ohio, last week, Mr. EATON the Whig candidate succeeded by a majority of 829 votes, a gain of 394 votes since October.

J. SPRIGG CHAMBERS, Esq., proposes to publish a weekly and tri-weekly paper in the city of Maysville to be called "the Maysville Herald." The Herald will be "devoted to the advocacy of the great principles of National policy, professed by the Whig party." Mr. C. is a young gentleman of fine talents, and is of a good Whig stock. We wish him abundant success.

GEN. HAMER.—The death of this gentleman was announced a few days since, to the Legislature of Ohio, by Mr. ELLISON, the representative from Brown county, of which Gen. H. was a citizen. The Legislature at once, and without a dissenting voice, resolved, that the body of Gen. HAMER be brought from Mexico, and interred in the soil of Ohio, at the expense of the State.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Mississippi, to his friend in this place, dated, Hernando, Dec. 30, 1846.

"A special election for a member of Congress in this State, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Col. Jefferson Davis, was held on last Monday week, and I have no doubt of the election of STARK, the Whig candidate! The election was by general ticket, and a letter from Jackson, says: Stark is elected, unless the democratic counties of the North, save his opponent; the lower counties have all given him majorities."

We sincerely hope STARK is elected, but we would advise our friends to keep cool, until they hear from "the democratic counties of the North."

WISCONSIN.—The Constitutional Convention of Wisconsin, closed its labors a few days since. The new Constitution extends the right of suffrage to all foreign born residents of the Territory, without requiring them to swear allegiance to the U. States. This most extraordinary, and certainly very unwise provision, was carried in Convention, by a vote of 61 to 31. Under the belief that this transformation of aliens into voters, was a mere scheme of the Democratic party to secure the votes of foreigners, a Whig member, after the passage of the clause making the foreigners voters, with a view of testing the sincerity of these pretended lovers of foreigners, proposed to make the foreigners authorized to vote, eligible to office. This proposition, however, did not suit the views or plans of the democracy, and it was voted down: thus saying to the foreigners, your votes are wanted, but we can fill the offices with other men!

The same Convention has established the principle, that the homestead of a family shall not be liable for sale under execution for any debt hereafter contracted. The property possessed by the wife before marriage, or fairly acquired by her afterward, shall not be liable for the debts of the husband.

Judges are to be chosen by the people, for which a special election will be held in July.

MR. POLK'S MESSAGE.—The President addressing himself particularly to the Farmers and Agriculturists, and appealing to them as the especial friends of the Tariff of 1843, says, in his message:

"When a foreign as well as a home market is opened to them, they must receive, as they are now receiving, increased prices for their products. They will find a ready sale, and at better prices, for their wheat, flour, rice, Indian corn, beef, pork, lard, butter, cheese, and other articles, which they produce. The home-market alone is inadequate to enable them to dispose of the immense surplus of food and other articles which they are capable of producing, even at the most reduced prices, for the manifest reason that they cannot be consumed in the country. The United States can, from their immense surplus, supply not only the home demand, but the deficiencies of food required by the whole world."

This would do very well, and would be a very proper sort of appeal, if the FACTS—facts known to every man in the nation at all familiar with the prices of produce, did not prove the statement in the message to be untrue. Mr. Polk avers, that the farmers "are now receiving increased prices for their products." To show how far the President is at fault in his statement, we submit the following table of prices in 1845, and "now."

	Dec. 1845.	Dec. 1846.
Flour, Genesee,	$6.75 bbl.	$9.31a5.37
" Michigan,	6.62 "	8.18a5.25
" Brandywine,	7.00 "	5.50
" Rye,	4.25a4.50 "	3.75a4.00
Wheat, N. Y.,	1.40a1.45 "	1.12a1.15
Rye,	83a85 "	78a79
Barley,	63a68 "	59a62
Corn,	82a85 "	70a72

It will be perceived, that notwithstanding the anticipated demand from Europe, growing out of their short crops and the anticipated famine, the influence of Mr. Polk's glorious free trade Tariff has been ruinous to the very class, to which he thought it necessary to direct his most ardent appeals.

TREMENDOUS FLOOD IN THE GREAT MIAMI.—IMMENSE DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY.—We learn from the Cincinnati Atlas of Tuesday last, that the rains on Thursday night and Friday last, were so heavy in the upper Miami valley, as to cause the river to rise to a height unknown since the settlement of the country. The water was running through the streets of Dayton in many places. The canal, river and turnpike were blended in one from Franklin to Dayton. The Hamilton Hydraulic works are completely destroyed. Rossview was partly under water. The canal at the mouth of Mad river gave way. All the canal bridges in that vicinity are gone! Hogs for slaughter, pork, flour, lumber, &c., all gone. The distillery at Venice is swept away.—Several lives were lost. It is impossible yet to compute the loss. It must, however, be immense.

The Whitewater has also been flooded to such an extent as to destroy the Whitewater canal, and stop navigation for months. Several locks have been carried away.

FROM SANTA FE.—Up to the 15th of November, the Paymasters at Santa Fe were without funds except Government paper which was at a ruinous discount.

A wealthy Mexican citizen seeing the embarrassments of the Government, agent for the want of money, had proffered to loan Major WALKER, Paymaster, one hundred thousand dollars, at an interest of only three per cent a month.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald, says that it is absolutely certain, that if Col. Benton, be sent as Lieutenant General to take the supreme command of the Army, Generals Taylor and Scott will both come home.

The amount paid out of the Treasury of the U. S., on account of the Mexican war, "expense account," from the fifth to the fifteenth of December, was two millions three hundred and thirty five thousand dollars.

In most newspaper offices, there is used a species of pliable, but strong paper, for the purpose of "wrappers." In these envelopes, are sent away the papers to distant subscribers. Where the circulation at a distance is small, it frequently happens that portions of the waste writing paper about the office is used for wrappers, and occasionally the manuscript of a communication goes forth with the printed copy. Sometimes private epistles, that relate to the mere business concerns of the publisher, serve to assist in the work of packing. A few days since, one of our brethren despatched his paper in a part of a letter, which may be of consequence to him hereafter, should he ever see for a branch of promise. We shall reserve the epistle, so that in case it is rendered necessary in Court, it shall be forthcoming. It is ample proof. Nothing is left to surmise. The consent is free and includes that of the best part of the family. We should have sent it back at once, but unfortunately, the address is torn off; and though we have little doubt as to the direction, yet the chance of mistake renders it proper that we retain possession.—U. S. Gazette.

The grass that grows in Western Africa, resembles that which grows in the prairies of Illinois and Missouri.

Single copies of both the DAILY and WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH, neatly enveloped in strong wrappers, can be had at this office, the former at 3 cents, and the latter at 5 cents per copy.

Prospectus of the Cincinnati Atlas.

BY STEVENSON, LOOKER & TODD.

THE undersigned, having purchased of N. GEN. ROSS, Esq., the entire establishment, embracing the Atlas Newspaper, Job Office, &c., will take charge of it on the first day of January, 1847.

It is hoped the new arrangement will prove entirely satisfactory to all the former patrons of the Atlas.

The Editorial Department of the paper will be under the direction of THOMAS H. STEVENSON, long experienced as a political writer, and late editor of the Frankfort Commonwealth, the Whig Journal at the Capitol of Kentucky. The departments of Commerce, News, Literature, City Items, &c., will be faithfully attended to by a strong corps of Regular Assistant Editors; while also, in all departments of the paper, the editor will be aided by numerous occasional contributors and correspondents.

Regular correspondents will be employed at Columbus, Washington, and other important points; so that the paper will be made, in its entire scope, if a liberal outlay of enterprise, industry, and other means can accomplish such a result, an interesting and useful Journal, worthy of the confidence and support of Politicians, Farmers, Manufacturers, Mechanics, Merchants, Families, and General Readers.

Every arrangement will be made to secure and publish the earliest News from every quarter.

The political character of the Atlas will be WHIG—thorough WHIG. It will be every thing for the Whig cause, nothing for Men. It will sacrifice no principle of the Whig party, no interest of the country, for any considerations of present or remote expediency. Taking it for granted that the nominee of the Whig party for the Presidency will be worthy the support of the Whigs of the Nation, the Atlas will give to such nominees, from whatever quarter of the Union called, a firm, fervent and enthusiastic support.

The Commercial Department of the Atlas will be under the direction of Mr. A. PRABHIV, of the Merchants' Exchange, and will, we hope, offer peculiar claims to the patronage of business men of every practical pursuit of life—Farmers, Trades, Merchants, Manufacturers, Mechanics, &c., &c. It will present daily reports of the Cincinnati Market—sales and prices; a weekly review of the Markets the imports and exports by river, canal, and railroad, with a weekly tabular exhibit of the same; and also all other matters connected with the commerce and trade of our city. Notices of Domestic and Foreign Markets of interest dates will regularly be given, with statistical and such other commercial information as is necessary to make the Atlas a thorough Commercial paper.

Identifying our entire interests with this great city, we hope to prove ourselves worthy of, and confidently expect to receive, a liberal share of patronage, in the way of subscriptions to the Atlas. Advertisements, all sorts of Job Work, &c., &c. All the proprietors of the Atlas being Natives of the West, we feel confident that we understand, and can in some measure promote, the vast interests of the great New York Republic.

But knowing that the paper itself will be judged by its contents, we refer to it; being perfectly willing that it shall be approved or rejected according to its merits and value.

The Atlas is published on a double Super-Royal sheet, of superior paper, with new Mueson and Nonpareil type, on the terms following:

DAILY, per annum, $8.00

TRI-WEEKLY, " 5.00

WEKELY, " 2.00

Subscriptions to the Daily and Tri Weekly payable half yearly. All Mail Subscribers will be required to pay in advance.

Advertisements will be thankfully received, and inserted at the regular rates.

Our exchanges are respectfully requested to copy this Prospectus. We will be happy to reciprocate the favor on any occasion.
